Indoors—Right in Your Own Home Grow Bulbs for Winter Cheer in Schling's Prepared Bulb Fiber

And no need of ugly pots, either! Use a bowl of your favorite color, blending with the furnishing scheme of the room. This will lend an additional charm to your plant—you will enjoy it so much more.

Our Bulb Fiber is a complete substitute for soil, scientifically prepared for use in receptacles without drainage. It is clean and odorless; no saucers necessary, no fear of staining the woodwork or table coverings. And bulbs really grow better in it than in soil, for it absorbs and holds an even moisture, and on account of its fluffiness allows the roots to penetrate freely. This Fiber is cleverly impregnated with plant-food in such a manner that it becomes available gradually but continually as required by the plants to assure a steady, healthy and vigorous growth.

Growing Bulbs in Our Prepared Fiber is a Fascinating Process. It is lots of fun to watch them grow and bloom. And all you have to do is to keep the Fiber moist!

PRICES OF SCHLING'S PREPARED BULB FIBER

DIRECTIONS FOR USING BULB FIBER

Wet the Fiber thoroughly until it has absorbed all the water it can hold. This is best done in a pail or pan. Then squeeze out nearly all the water and it will be just right for planting. Fill the bowl three-fourths full, or to within a few inches of the top, according to the size of the bulb. Press down gently (never pack it down), set bulbs at the proper distances, and fill up with Fiber. Press it gently around the bulbs but don't pack it down. Keep the Fiber damp, by spraying it lightly every day, but never allow it to become too wet. All bulbs, except Freesias, Callas, and Lily-of-the-Valley should be kept in a dark place to develop roots before sprouting. Hyacinths, Daffodils, and Tulips require from four to six weeks; Paper-White, and Soleil d'Or Narcissi and Chinese Lilies from two to three weeks. By bringing in a few bowls at intervals and making additional plantings, one may enjoy blooming plants all through the winter months.

Extra-Selected Dutch Hyacinths

TOP ROOTS (Exhibition Bulbs)

A special pick of the largest bulbs produced in Holland. Sound, plump, and well matured, producing strong spikes of great length—you can buy no better. This size should always be selected for pot or glass culture, as they are far more vigorous in growth and produce larger and finer flower-trusses than the smaller bulbs. They are unexcelled for outdoor planting for the same reason, if the price can be afforded. Cultural directions for growing Hyacinths in pots, fiber, and glasses furnished on request. See Bedding Hyacinths for cultural directions for outdoor growing.

EXTRA-SELECTED SECOND-SIZE BEDDING HYACINTHS

Of the same age as the Top Roots, but just slightly below the measurements required for that class, these are ideal for bedding purposes. Their low cost makes them especially valuable for large plantings, and, in many cases, they are preferable to the larger bulbs, as the flower-spikes are not so heavy and will better withstand the rough winds of spring. As the Single Hyacinths form better spikes and are more attractive than the double sorts, we offer but the one variety.

Hyacinths grow in any good garden soil, but a well-enriched soil induces more perfect growth and larger flower-spikes. Well-rotted barnyard manure, sheep-manure, or bone-meal, liberally applied, well dug in, and mixed with the soil is very helpful. Set bulbs 6 inches apart each way and 6 inches deep (to bottom of bulb). Hyacinths are perfectly hardy, but a light covering of salt-hay, leaves, or straw, after the ground is frozen, will prove beneficial.

Darwin Tulips

The Darwins belong to the May-flowering type of Tulip, and are very brilliant in color, perfect in form, and exceedingly tall. They are the most popular of all the Tulip family and produce a splendid effect when planted in groups of twelve to fifteen in borders or among shrubs. A bed of them is a gorgeous sight. They should always be planted in solid colors. Very valuable as a cut-flower, as they last a long time in water. All can be grown under glass, but must not be forced too rapidly. Follow same cultural directions as given for Single Early Tulips, except that the Darwins, being taller and more vigorous growers, should be planted 6 inches apart and 5 inches deep (to bottom of bulb).

Planting of Cottage Tulips

SINGLE EARLY TULIPS

FOR BEDDING OR FORCING. ALL FIRST-SIZE BULBS

Especially recommended for forcing; planted outdoors they will bloom in April and during the first part of May.

CULTURE.—Tulips appreciate a well-enriched soil, although they grow well in ordinary garden soil, and a liberal application of barnyard manure, sheep-manure, or bone-meal will result in increased growth and size of bloom. Plant bulbs 5 inches apart each way and 5 inches deep (to the bottom of bulb). No further care is necessary, but a covering of salt-hay, leaves, or straw is beneficial. Plant outdoors any time after October 1 and until the ground freezes.

Varieties marked "1" begin to bloom about April 20; those marked "2", about May 1.

We can supply all standard varieties of Tulips, not listed here, at reasonable prices

CALOCHORTI or BUTTERFLY TULIPS

The lovely Mariposa and Lantern Tulips are native of our western coast and are very beautiful. The eyes and markings of the flowers are much like those of a butterfly's wings. Plant any time from October 1 till frost, 2½ inches deep and 2 to 3 inches apart.

Vesta. Superb, with great 3- to 5-inch flowers on long stems for cutting. Color white flushed with lilac-rose and purple. An exquisite Mariposa. $1.25 per doz.

Oculatus. Wonderfully varied in whites and creams, the eye large and richly zoned, and the pencilings about the base are very delicate. 60 cts. per doz., $4 per 100.

Plant Your Roses in the Fall

IT IS THE BETTER TIME AND YOU HAVE MORE TIME TO DO IT RIGHT

Contrary to general belief, experiments have proven conclusively that Roses planted in late autumn will produce the best results. The success of the Rose in this country is largely a question of the selection of adaptable varieties and the preservation of a good, healthy root system. It is, therefore, apparent that plants freshly dug and transplanted in late fall should have an advantage over those dug in fall, stored over winter in sheds, and disturbed a second time when shipped in spring, for every time a plant is lifted, no matter how carefully done, the root system is disturbed, necessary fibrous roots are lost, and the vitality of the plant is lessened.

Buying Roses in the fall saves storage charges—it is cheaper.

Buying Roses in the fall assures you strong, healthy plants with good roots—very important.

Planting Roses in the fall gives you a better chance for the careful preparation of the soil and assures you best results.

In planting Roses, the graft or bud should be 2 inches below the soil. Just before the ground freezes, draw the soil up against the plant, in the same manner as you would hill up potatoes, and cover with leaves or salt hay. The chances of losses from fall planting will be less than from spring planting.

A Superb Collection of Modern Peonies

FOR FALL PLANTING

An Offering of Twelve of the Finest, Most Perfect and Dependable Varieties

Far ahead of the old-fashioned kind of grandmother's garden fame—sweet-scented—extra large and beautiful in shape

WE BEGIN TO SHIP OUR PEONY ROOTS IN SEPTEMBER—ORDER NOW

Always plant Peonies in the fall. It is the only time, for then the roots are in prime condition for planting. While Peonies grow well in any good garden soil, it will amply repay you to prepare the soil especially by thoroughly mixing with it a large quantity of well-rotted barnyard manure or humus. Set the roots at least 2 feet apart and cover the top eyes not more than 2 to 3 inches. This is important, as deep planting often results in blind growth.

Our quotations are for large bulbs with from 3 to 5 strong eyes.

Achille. Delicate flesh. Buds and half-open flowers exquisitely fresh color. Early midseason. $1.

Agnes M. Kelway. Deep violet-rose, cream at base. Early midseason. $1.25.

Albatre. Very large; double; ivory-white, delicately tinted lilac-rose. Very beautiful. Midseason.

Alexandre Dumas. Beautiful bright pink, with chamois-white and salmon intermingling. Very large and fully double. Exceedingly fragrant. $1.

Anemonæ Flora Rubra. Deep, brilliant Tyrian-rose. Very full and sweetly perfumed. $1.

Auguste Lemonier. Immense; full; purplish red. Fine form. Midseason. $1.

Beauté Française. Pale lilac-rose; large and full. Center petals usually tipped with carmine. Fragrant; early. Blooms most abundantly. $1.

Belle Douaisienne. Hydrangea-pink, center petals splashed crimson. Midseason. $1.50.

Duc de Cazes. Rich deep pink, edges shaded salmon; large and full. Extremely early. A splendid variety. $1.

Duchesse de Nemours. Guard petals white, center soft yellow gradually shading to white as the bloom expands. Among all Peonies there is nothing so choice as this variety. Blooms very early and deliciously scented. $1.

Eugenie Verdier. Soft satiny flesh-pink, changing to white at center. An enormous flower on exceedingly long stems. One of the most impressive and beautiful Peonies in cultivation. $2.

Festiva maxima. The best pure white Peony. Large and full; very fragrant. Blooms abundantly. Few center petals usually tipped blood-red; borne on long slender stems. Early. $1.25.

Any of the above sold separately at the prices quoted.

The entire collection—1 bulb each of the 12 varieties, $12.

While the above Peonies are our choice of the best twelve for the home-garden, we have nearly 200 sorts grown in our Nursery and can supply any variety desired at the lowest prices.
